

Sarah Hallberg

PARALEGAL

Sarah Hallberg has nearly 10 years of experience as a litigation paralegal and legal assistant in Indiana and Oregon. Her practice areas include insurance defense, Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 bankruptcies, Social Security disability appeals, family law, and property tax appeals. Sarah finds satisfaction in her attention to detail and ability to solve problems. She handles document analysis and management, fact investigation, electronic discovery, research, trial support, reports and exhibits in large and small cases.

Outside of the office, Sarah enjoys evenings of cooking and bingeing the latest TV series with her family at their registered historic home. She loves hiking, camping, farmer's markets, casual cups of coffee, and so many of the incredible things Portland has to offer. She has been known in the past to teach tap dance classes — including to some partners, associates, and assistant colleagues at Hart Wagner!
